2012-2013 CBC Event Calendar

10/16/12  Alternative Energy & Sustainability: Choate’s Kohler Environmental Center
Experience the first facility of its kind at a secondary school in the U.S. & Choate’s holistic approach sustainability.

11/13/12  Project Opportunities from the Community Health Center Movement
The landscape of the healthcare industry is changing rapidly and so is the response of the design and construction industry. Learn how the AEC community can be a part of expanding this essential network of health care.

12/18/12  Spotlight on a CBC Project Team Award Winner at Yale University
Hear about best practice and tips to embarking on an award-winning project and being a part of an award-winning project team

1/15/13   The Results are In – Design Build is Here to Stay
A panel of public and private sector industry experts share how you can position your firm to benefit.

2/12/13   Higher Education: Universities and Colleges are changing to improve student recruiting, retention, and response to increasing costs.
A panel of academic and industry experts share their insights into campus improvements, relocations, energy management, and public-private partnerships.

3/19/13   New Urbanism & Transit Oriented Development in Connecticut
How the new generation, shifting lifestyles and city transformations will present opportunities for future design and construction projects

4/24/13   Doing Business with the State of Connecticut in the Wake of UConn Law Library
Experienced construction law attorneys and representatives of various industries discuss the implications of the decision of the state Supreme Court in State v. Lombardo Brothers Mason Contractors, Inc., et al. 307 Conn. 412 (2012).

5/21/13   *Back to the Future- Historic preservation, a strong market for the industry!
It’s Revolutionary and it’s happening in Connecticut. Hear about recent, current and potential future projects and how to be a part of this market. *Jointly sponsored by CBC, Connecticut Trust for Historic Preservation, and Hartford Preservation Alliance.